

Language Assistance Services

ATTENTION: If you speak English, language assistance services, free of charge, are available to you. Call 1-301-443-5636 .

The Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) complies with applicable federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. The HHS nondiscrimination notice lists the services available to you and how to file a complaint if you feel that HHS has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way.

HRSA:

- Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:
 - Qualified sign language interpreters
 - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)
- Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
 - Qualified interpreters
 - Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) at 1-301-443-5636.

If you believe that HRSA has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, electronically through the Office for Civil Rights Complaint Portal, or by mail or phone at:
